

About Us

Laura M. Wilson & Associates, Inc. is a bilingual, leading vocational Return-To-Work Counseling (VRTWC) firm, providing return-to-work vocational services to injured workers for over 20 years.

We specialize in Supplemental Job Displacement Benefits (SJDB) Voucher Counseling Services, Return-To-Work-Fund Benefits, Vocational Research, Transferable Skills Analysis and Expert Witness Testimony.

Through the identification of suitable, gainful vocational training, our vocational counselors work directly with attorneys, insurance companies, schools and agencies to provide individual vocational rehabilitation counseling services, which include counseling, vocational exploration, labor market & school research, plan development, monitoring, and job placement.

Service Highlights

Why Choose Us Experienced

From our experience and considering the ever-changing Workers Compensation landscape, it is vital to appoint a professional and well-experienced Voucher Counseling Service to consult and provide your client with transparency each step of the way. We seamlessly integrate our experience and proven process to give the injured worker an advantage and the confidence they need to learn a new vocation. We can save your staff time, frustration, and money all while maintaining an efficient workflow during the SJDB Voucher and RTW Fund Benefit Undertaking.

A Vocational counseling service can help an injured worker get the most out of their supplemental job displacement voucher and Return-To-Work Supplement Program benefits. Using these benefits are essential to a positive transition back into the job market.

In a time where the process of a Workers Compensation Claim is laborious, frustrating, and at times deflating to your client, you can be assured we will leave a positive imprint and at the very least give them the confidence, support, and the tools necessary to take a leap of faith and venture onto a new career path. We are committed to delivering sound quality Voucher Counseling Service.
